

Debbie

As a landscape architect, I have come to really value the use of native plants. They help to create a beautiful and healthy wildlife habitat and a diverse biological community. In my practice, I always promote the use of native plants and warn against the use of non-natives that are invasive. So please join me and spread native plants throughout the commonwealth. In doing so, we will make a healthy, biological wildlife community throughout the entire state.